Grading Policy: The final grade for each nine-week grading period will be based on various methods of assessment. This may include, but is not limited to: tests, classwork, homework, projects, warm-ups, and class participation. Tests will be given at the conclusion of a unit. Students will be given a comprehensive study guide and will participate in a class review session prior to each test.
Homework: Homework is meant to reinforce skills taught in class. Assignments will be posted on the board. Homework will almost always be classwork that wasn't finished in class. Students are responsible for recording assignments daily in their planners. Continuous good use of class time will limit the amount of time required at home to complete assignments.
Absences and Homebound: If a student is absent, it is the responsibility of THE STUDENT to inquire about all work missed and to make it up. Any homework or projects assigned prior to an absence are due immediately upon return to class. In the event of an unexpected absence, two days will be allowed to complete missing work. If a student is homebound, it is the responsibility of THE STUDENT to check Schoology for all materials required during their absence. Contact Mr. Carpenter via Remind for any questions.
Cell Phones: Students can use electronic devices only with a teacher's permission (which is almost never). CELL PHONES CAN NOT BE USED AS CALCULATORS.
Planners/Hall Passes: Students should bring their planner to every class to write down all homework assignments and test dates. Students will not be allowed to leave the classroom unless it is an emergency. Their planner will be needed to leave the classroom because it will act as their hall pass.
