Advanced English 9
Hillcrest High School

Course Description

Advanced English 9 expands upon students' demonstrated competencies in English usage and mechanics, oral and written communication, and classical and contemporary literature.

Activities are designed to offer in-depth studies of poetry, novels, essays, short stories, and dramatic literature. Students use library research skills, analytical and critical thinking skills, and creative writing abilities to demonstrate English proficiency. Grammar studies include advanced composition, clauses, and phrases, as well as improved effectiveness in expository, persuasive, descriptive, and narrative writing.

Course Requirements/ Classroom Rules

1. All Tuscaloosa County Board of Education and Hillcrest High School rules will be enforced in my classroom.
2. Bring all materials to class. No returning to lockers.
3. No food, gum, or drinks in the classroom.
4. Be in your seat and ready to begin class when the tardy bell rings.
5. You will not disrupt the environment or prevent others from learning.
6. ASK when you do not understand.
7. The DRESS CODE will be enforced in this classroom.
8. Technology can be a valuable educational resource. Students are allowed to use electronic and technological devices at SPECIFIED times and ONLY when authorized by the teacher for an instructional purpose. Devices such as smart phones, Kindles, Nooks, laptops, and iPads are items that students may use at the designated time. Students may also use these devices to replace paperback/hard-cover novels required for class.

Grading Policy

Grades will consist of homework, class work, quizzes (announced and unannounced), organized notebooks, class participation, tests, projects, presentations, and exit slips. This is a yearlong course (4 nine week grading periods). A mandatory comprehensive assessment will be administered at the end of the first nine-week term, the second nine-week term, and the third nine-week term. A comprehensive final examination at the end of the year (final exam) will count twenty percent (20%) of the final grade. Mandatory comprehensive final examinations will be administered to all students except those meeting the exemption criteria. Please see the Parent-Student Information Guide for final exam exemption policy. The final grade for a student meeting the exemption criteria will be determined from the average of the four nine weeks' grades.

Attendance Policy

- It is your responsibility to see me the day you return to school to complete missed work.

Additional Information

All policies of the Tuscaloosa County Board of Education and Hillcrest High School regarding misconduct and attendance will be followed in this course. After reading and reviewing all sections of the Advanced English 9 Course Syllabus with your child, please sign and return the signature page from this packet. This counts as the first homework grade.

Please be aware that reading is an imperative part of achieving success in this course. You are required to keep up with the reading assignments for this class even when you are absent. You will be required to take all reading quizzes the day you return to school. It is advised that you keep the literature book or novel in which we are reading with you at all times.

In signing this, you are also acknowledging that you are aware that your child is responsible for having a copy of the following three novels:

Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird

Cynthia Voigt's Dacey's Song

Gordon Korman's Son of the Mob: Hollywood Hustle

These novels may be purchased on the Internet or from a local bookstore. You may also borrow these from former students. Please have all the novels by Tuesday, September 9, 2015.
